TIPS FOR EXHIBITING:

- Please read schedule carefully, noting any measurements and method of showing.
 - Where 'One Cut' is requested, it means only one stem showing at upper level of container. Stem may be supported, below the level of the container top (using, eg. Paper, another stem, NO wire)
 - N.N.D. means Not Necessarily Different.
 - D.V. means Different Varieties
 - All entries in Potted Plant and Cut Flower Classes must be grown by exhibitor for, at least, 3 months.
 - Green bottles are preferred as exhibition containers; some are available in the preparation area.
 - Plant/s to be shown only in the container it is being grown in (not inside a decorative pot).
 - Pot to be clean.
 - Remove any spent blooms/leaves before showing.
 - Rose names are desirable.
 - Exhibitors display at own risk – we recommend not using valuable vases or accessories.
 - Saucers: sand must be domed; and all edges covered.
 - Miniature gardens must include some horticultural material.
- All exhibit tickets to be attached to entries.
